AUCTION SALE
OF TIMBER LIMITS.

New York, Oct. 1.

With bid by Auction on WEDNESDAY, 30th September, the following vessels: TIMBER LIMITS, one hundred and seventy-five square meters, belonging to the late firm of P. H. & C. LEWIS, of New York, on the River Lagan, Belfast, Ireland, in the County of Antrim.

There is a large quantity of FINE timber which can be made either into logs or square timber. It is mostly of large size and especially suitable to the hardware and rolling character of Belfast. SILVER and gold coins and bullion.

The timber is comparatively easy and the white river generally favorable for driving.

A great advantage of these limits is that provisions and supplies can be obtained at the wharves of Belfast, which are, owing to the harboring conditions, being not far from the greatest body of Pine.

Terms usual. For inspection of plans and further information apply to COULT & MAGINOT, Accountants, Mount Street, at the Office of the Subscribers.
